

TRANCE BABY DEAD; INFANT'S BIG PLUNGE.

Cruel Father Beat Little Daughter Because She Cried.

In spite of unremitting efforts to save four-year-old Katie Knepper, who had been lying in a trance for the last eight days at 112 Canal street, the little girl died this noon.

BABY FELL TO DEATH DOWN AN AIR-SHAFT.

Baby Edna Lidenthal plunged down the air-shaft at her parents' home in the fashionable Park View apartments, at 47 Central Park West, shortly after noon to-day and was instantly killed.

TAR AND FEATHERS FOR A BABY BEATER.

For beating his eighteen-month-old daughter Dorothy, Terrence Teehan, thirty-two years old, was bound over to Special Sessions in Butler Street Court, Brooklyn, this morning.

STRIKERS TO PRISON; HOUSES SEARCHED.

Company from the Seventh Regiment marched into the Bowery. The Sheriff had search warrants enabling his men to ransack the houses for arms and ammunition.

SMASHED IN DOORS.

From house to house the Sheriff marched, breaking in doors, ordering the troops to search beds, closets, cellars and garrets for weapons and powder.

WOMEN VENGEANCE.

Those who sought vengeance, we'll get this, shouted a woman. Women guarding the captured strikers were angry.

MRS. GOULD TRIES SUIT.

Justice Steiner Decides Modiste's Action in Her Favor.

Mrs. Howard Gould has triumphed. Mirabella, the Fifth Avenue modiste, and her brother, Louis Dubain, to whom she assigned a claim of $5 against the millionaire's wife, have met with defeat. Justice Steiner, in the Eighth District Court, this morning so decided.

And the blue panne waist, so fair to look upon when flaunted in court by her lawyer, A. H. Hummel, but which Mrs. Gould cleverly told her assume the position of a contumacious witness when tried on the now famous exhibit of a case that means much to fashionable women and fashionable modistes.

When she tried the same on in the presence of the witness, Hester Croucher, her maid, who testified that she was an expert dressmaker, she found the defects which she had sworn to, which defects were of such a nature that the defendant could not wear the waist.

Some of the Fine Things. The complaint contains a detailed list of the items which Mrs. Gould, through the entire list, is demanding a separate answer to each item.

Rejected the Tea Gown. A tan cloth gown, price $210, Mr. Gould says, was such a poor fit that his wife did not accept it.

STEEL TONE IN STOCKS.

Steel Issues Were the Exception and Prices Mounted.

Prices at the opening of the stock market today were generally all steel stocks, with the exception of the leading iron and steel industrial, starting lower.

Trading was again inactive and the scarcity of offerings was noticeable. While American Steel & Wire common stock fractionally advanced to 42-1/4, 3-8 higher than the previous day's close, the preferred stock lost 1-3/4 points.

The other iron and steel stocks were generally irregular, aside from Tennessee Coal & Iron, which lost 1-4, to 85. American Sugar, People's Gas and American Tobacco held remarkably firm.

NEW YORK FOR BRYAN.

The Democratic State Convention for the selection of delegates to the National Convention at Kansas City July 4 will in all probability be held in this city in June.

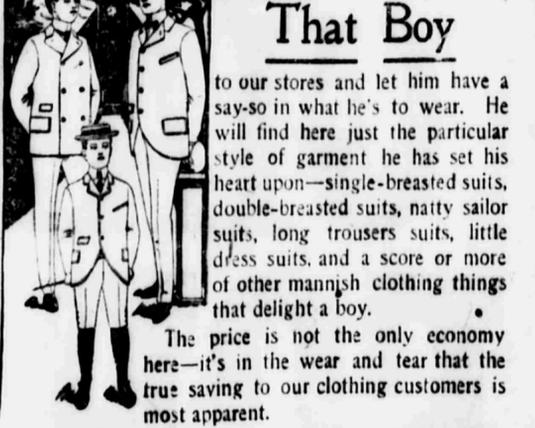

DELEGATES MAY BE FREE, BUT WILL PROBABLY VOTE FOR HIM.

It is thought there will be no opposition to the selection of New York, while the convention for the nomination of State officers will go to either Albany or Saratoga, Rochester, it is understood, will make a strong bid and may win out.
